8. THE TUITION PROTECTION SERVICE (TPS)

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS) is an initiative of the Australian Government to assist international students whose education providers are unable to fully deliver their course of study. The TPS ensures that international students are able to either:

- Complete their studies in another course or with another education provider or
- Receive a refund of their unspent tuition fees.

"In the unlikely event your education provider is unable to deliver a course you have paid for and does not meet their obligations to either offer you an alternative course that you accept or pay you a refund of your unspent prepaid tuition fees (this is called a provider's 'default obligations'), the TPS will assist you in finding an alternative course or to get a refund if a suitable alternative is not found.

The reforms aim to protect the considerable investment international students make in an Australian education, and to protect and enhance Australia's global reputation.

Some of the key features are:

- A new national TPS which will replace a range of existing tuition assurance arrangements.
- A limit of up to 50 per cent of total tuition fees may be collected prior to student commencement (unless the course is 24 weeks or less).
- Specified providers to keep initial prepaid fees in a separate account until a student commences study.
- Student refunds will be based on unexpended tuition fees (rather than on total course cost as previously)."
